

Fly

Music: Anindo Bose

Vocal Arrangement: Annette Philip

Lyrics: Annette Philip

Sometimes, you gotta let go
Coz time changes everything you know
When things turn out different
Don't be surprised
Change is the only constant baby
Don't you realize?

People come and people go
Feelings, you never know
You plan but you can't be sure
So why hold back
Just go with the flow
And just let go and

Fly... so high... Fly...

Mama taught me how to be free
She said put in your all, its ok if you fall
You always end up winning when you don't expect a thing
When things turn out different
Don't you be surprised
Change is the only constant baby
Don't you realize?

Yesterday was long, long ago
Tomorrow, you never know
You plan but you can't be sure
You've got today
So go with the flow
And just let go and

Fly...

Break away
Face the day
Move on
You gotta live for today
No time for hesitation
You gotta be your own inspiration

Fly...
